

HOW TO RE-ENGAGE BOYS WITH LEARNING AND CREATE GOOD MEN IN THE MODERN WORLD

A Seminar for Teachers K - 12

Presented by RICHARD PEDLEY-SMITH AND WADE FAIRCLOUGH

This seminar seeks to identify and address issues commonly found in young males across broad sub-groups within schools in NSW and Australia. There is a particular focus on refining existing programs working within school frameworks in order to develop positive masculinity and self-esteem in underachieving and at-risk boys. The ultimate aim of this seminar being to re-engage students with class activities and inspire them to reach their full potential to become "Good Men".

Through a variety of strategies, teachers will learn how to equip boys with skills to help them achieve academically, emotionally and socially.

During the day Richard and Wade will discuss:

- Why boys are at risk?
- What is a "good man?"
- How do we move from negative Peer-Esteem to positive Self-Esteem
- How do we break down barriers and communicate effectively with boys
- Responding to trauma...What to do when they finally open up

They will also share:

- What has worked/failed with our program
- The "hidden costs" of working with disengaged boys
- What to do when their family is the problem
